i've got a lot to live - so says the pepsi generation, our generation. what does life have to offer me? problems, love, and just plain life.

Bows and flows of angel hair,
And ice cream castles in the air,
And feather canyons ev'ry where,
I've looked at clouds that way.
But now they only block the sun,
They rain and snow on everyone.
So many things I would have done,
But clouds got in my way.
I've looked at clouds from both sides now,
From up and down and still somehow
It's cloud illusions I recall;
I really don't know clouds at all.

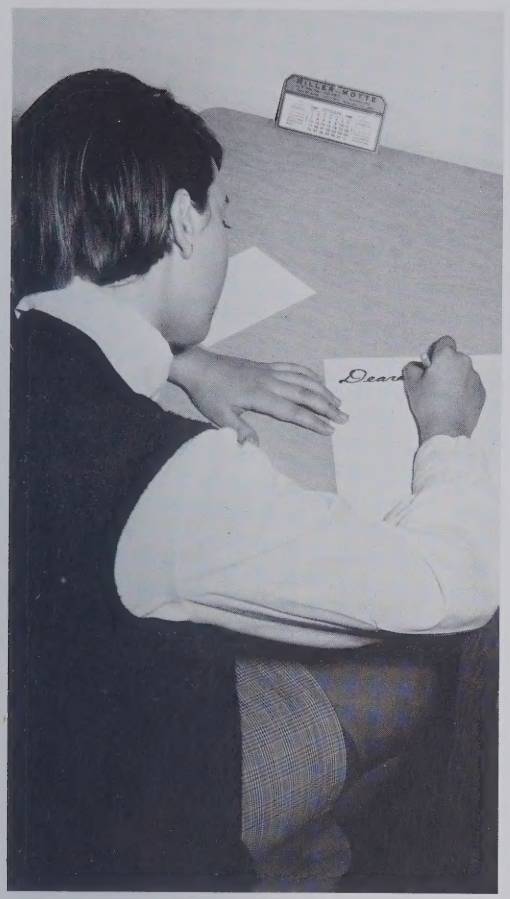
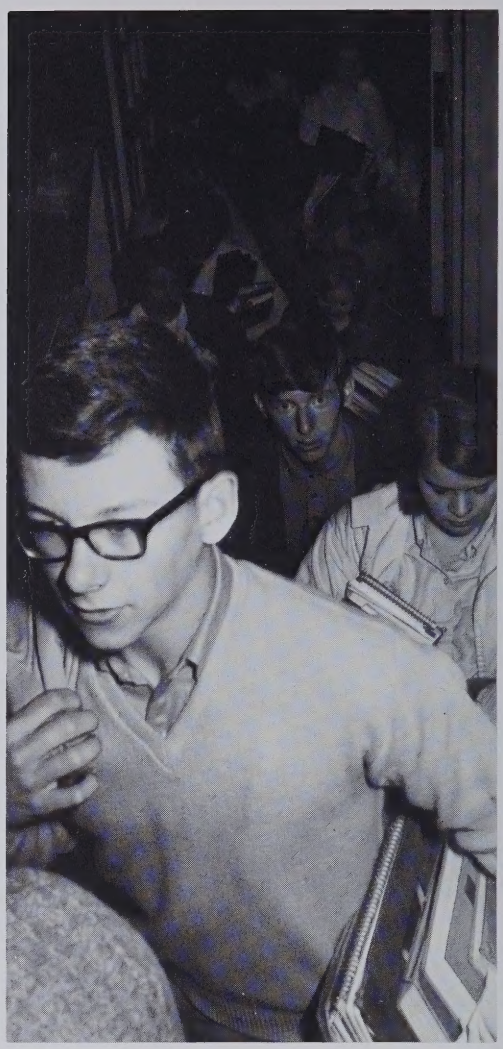
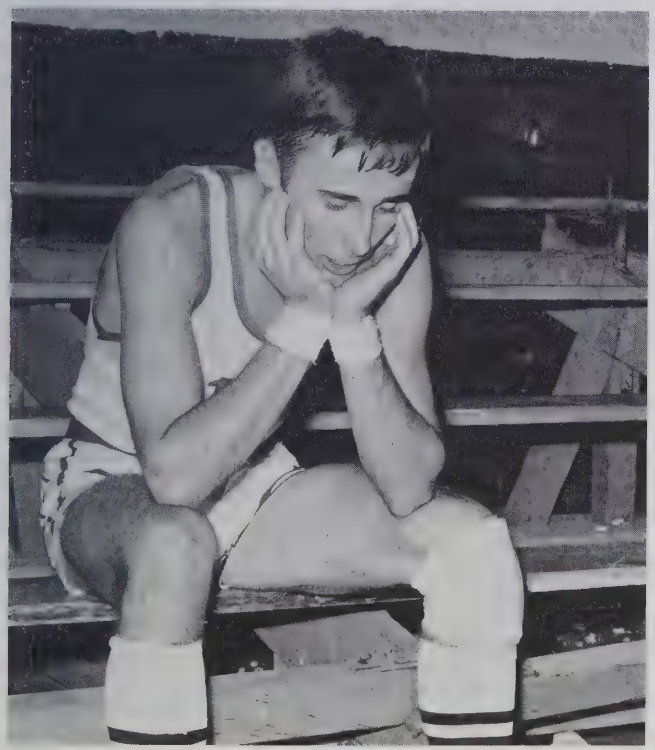
"i've looked at love from both sides now, i really don't know love at all."

Moons and Junes and ferris wheels,
The dizzy dancing way you feel,
As ev'ry fairy tale comes real,
I've looked at love that way.
But now it's just another show,
You leav'em laughing when you go.
And if you care, don't let them know,
Don't give yourself away.
I've looked at love from both sides now,
From give and take and still somehow
It's love's illusions I recall;
I really don't know love at all.



MILLER-MOTTE
Dear





"but something's lost but something's gained, in living ev'ryday."

Tears and fears and feeling proud,
To say "I love you" right out loud,
Dreams and schemes and circus crowds,
I've looked at life that way.
But now old friends are acting strange,
They shake their heads, they say I've changed.
But something's lost but something's gained,
In living ev'ry day.
I've looked at life from both sides now,
From win and lose and still somehow
It's life's illusions I recall;
I really don't know life at all.

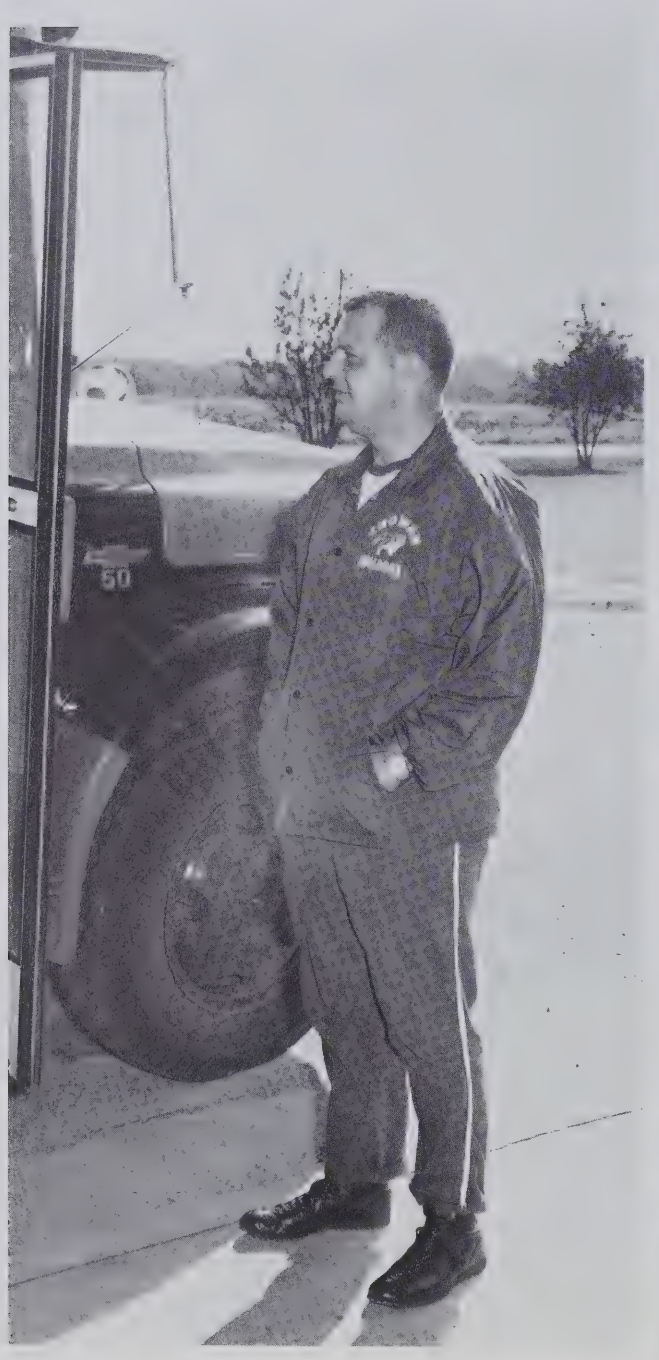
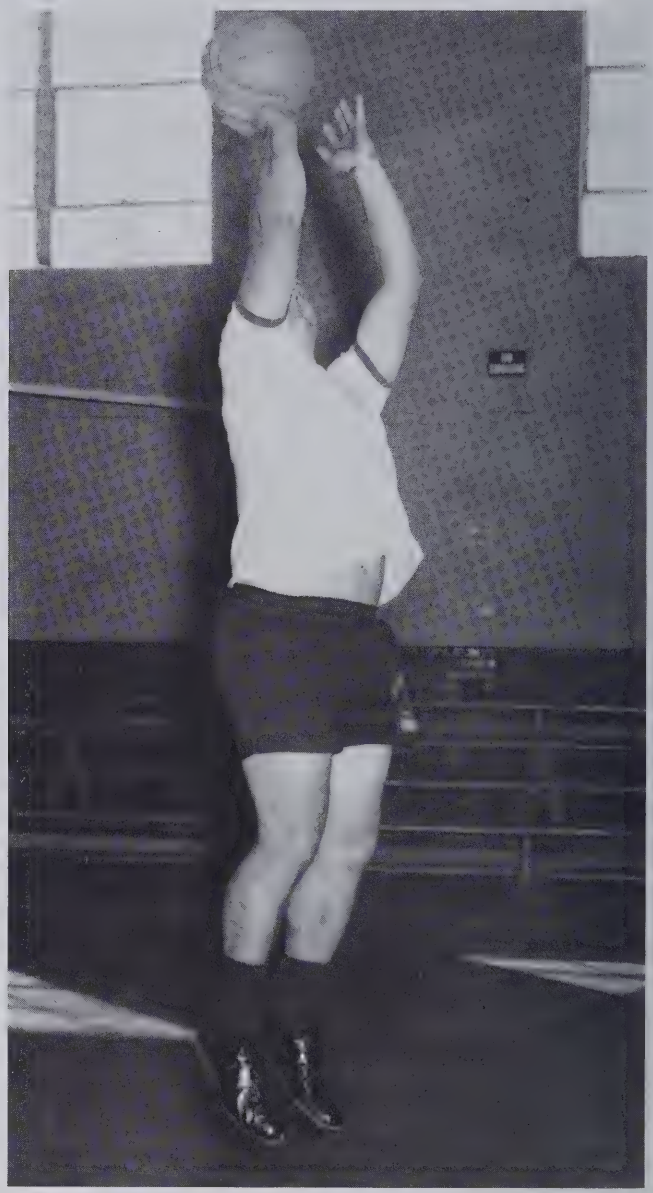
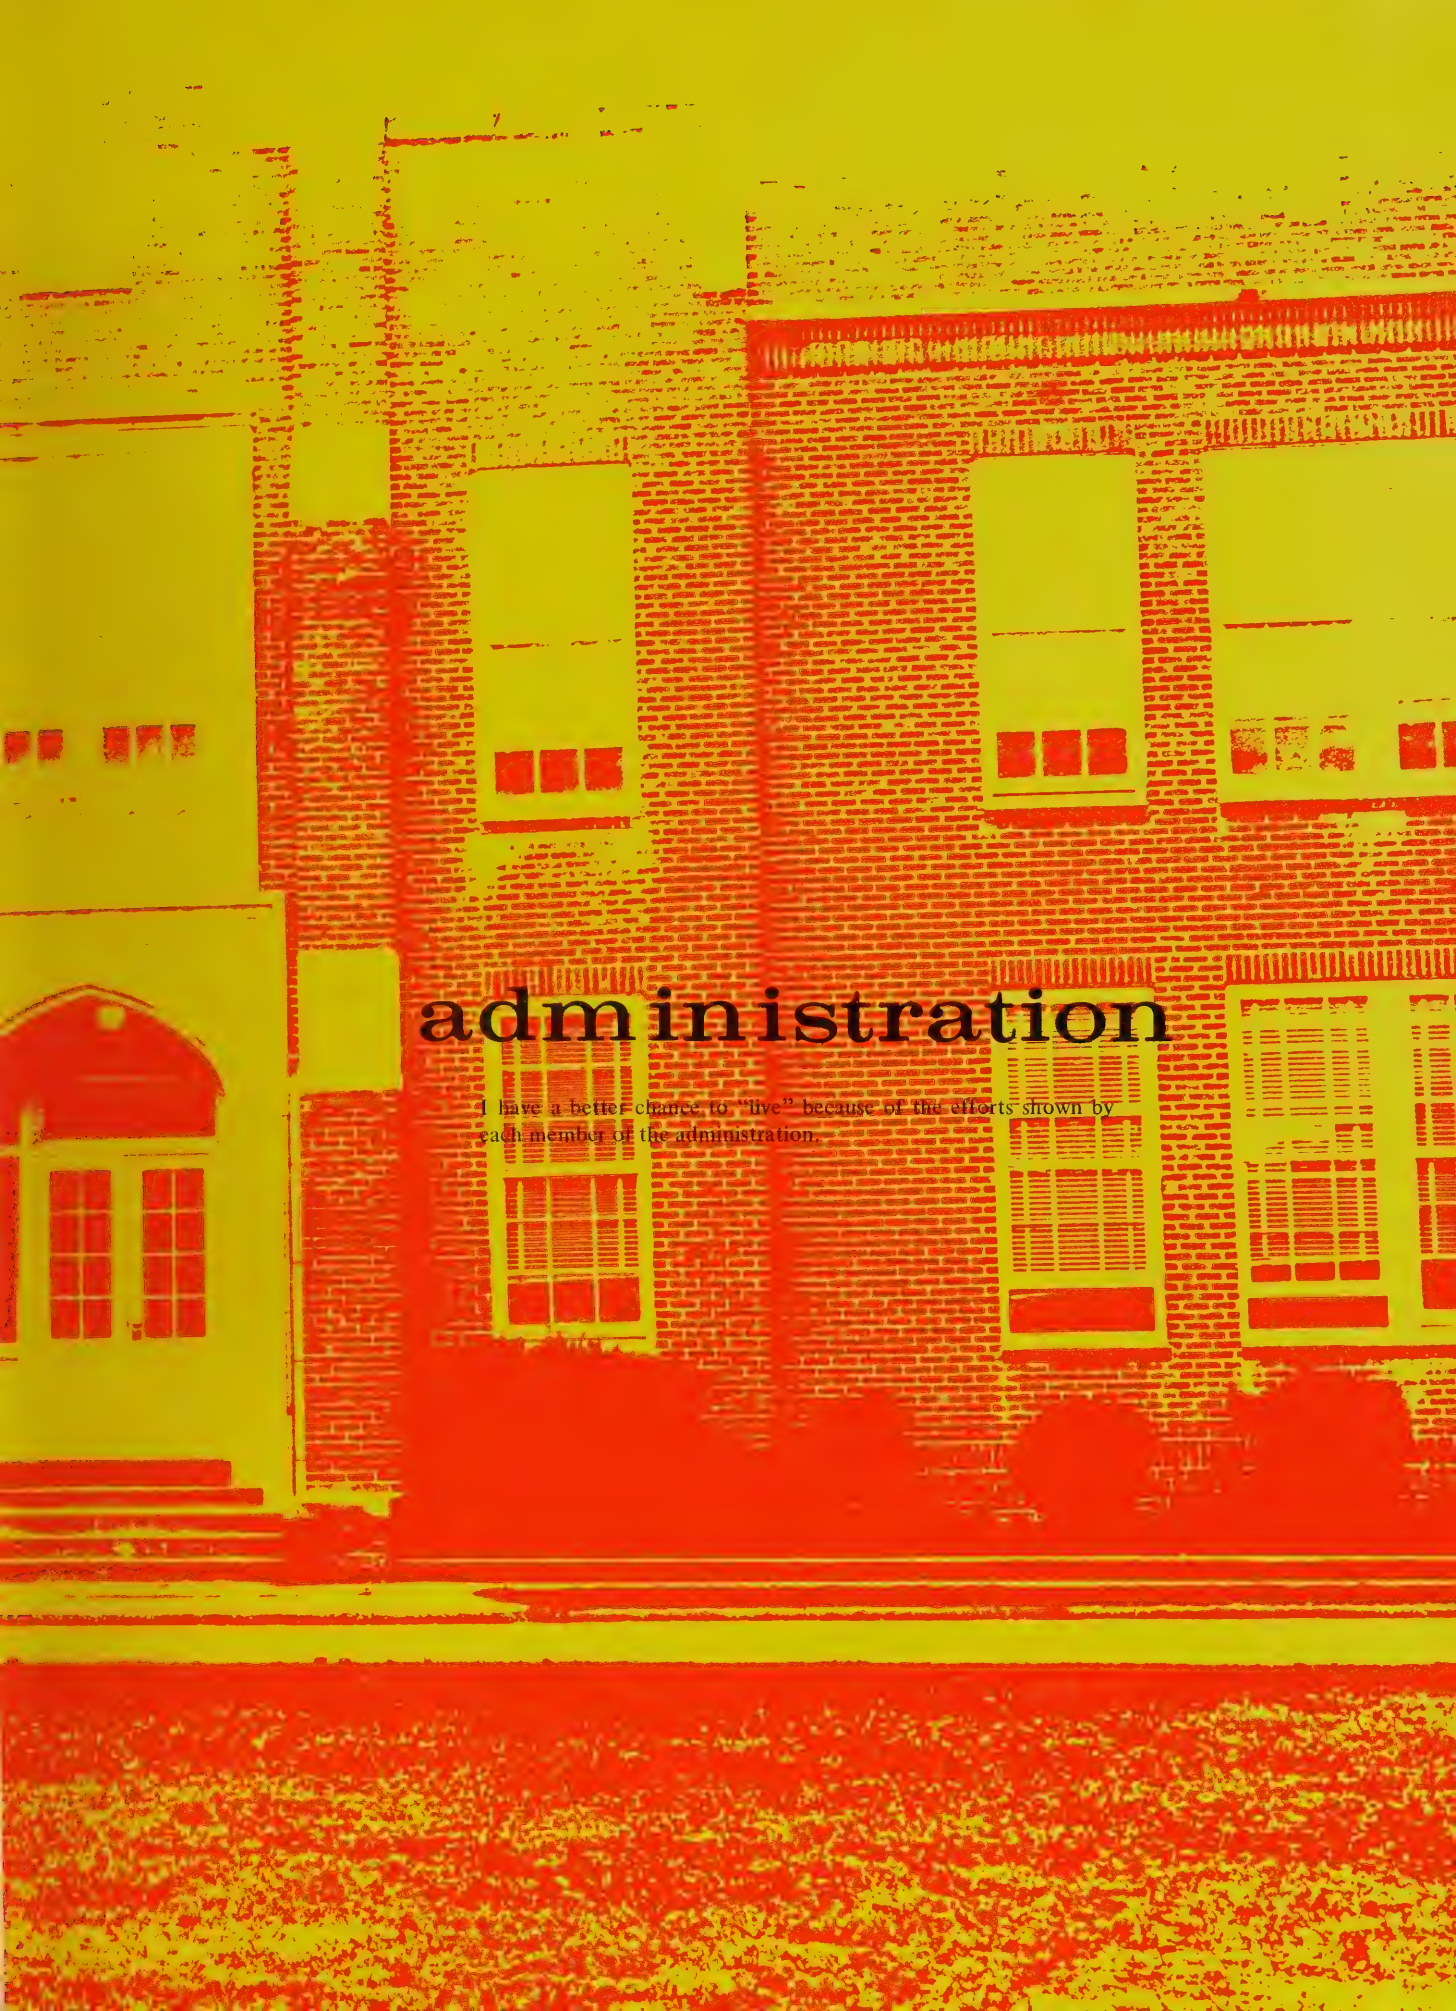
coach john ward "lives"





The eyes of the young are focused upon those who do, think, and live according to this generation's ideals. Therefore when we, the seniors, assembled to dedicate our proudest achievement, our responsibility was to select a person who fitted these ideals. "He's our idol, he's our dream, he's the coach of our ballteam. WARD! WARD! WARD!"



administration

I have a better chance to "live" because of the efforts shown by each member of the administration.

who's who at chs

The CHOWAN CHIEF presents for the first time the selection of Who's Who. The high school faculty select these outstanding seniors in areas of scholarship, leadership, congeniality, participation, and sportsmanship.

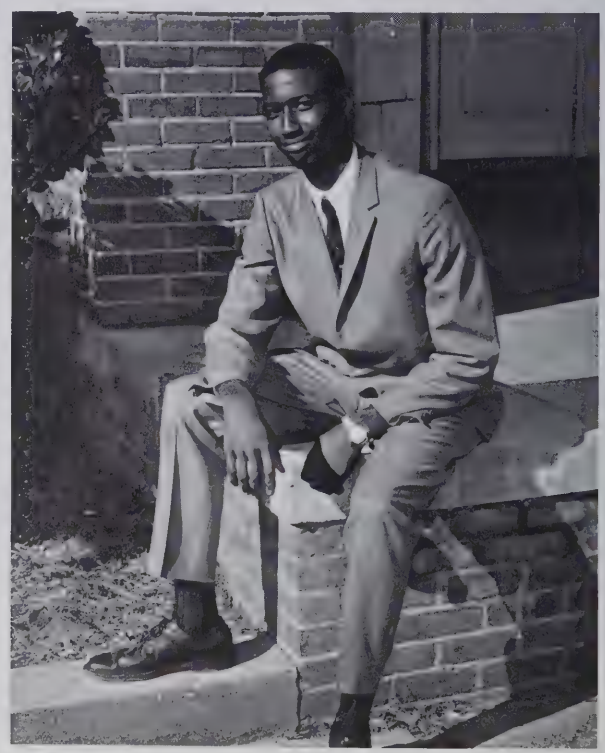
)ROTHY WHITE and JIMMY PEELE have realized before iny of us that studying and application of ability will be quite neficial in putting them "on top" in life.

Some of us lead directly, others indirectly. TOMMY BASS is a leader because of the respect his fellow classmates have for his opinions and judgments.

If it is so hard to keep up with RHONDA BUNCH, it's because she is involved in almost every phase of school life. Rhonda tries to divide her time among her major responsibilities of co-captain of the Bulldogettes, president of the Senior Class, editor of the Chowanian, and business manager of the CHOWAN CHIEF.

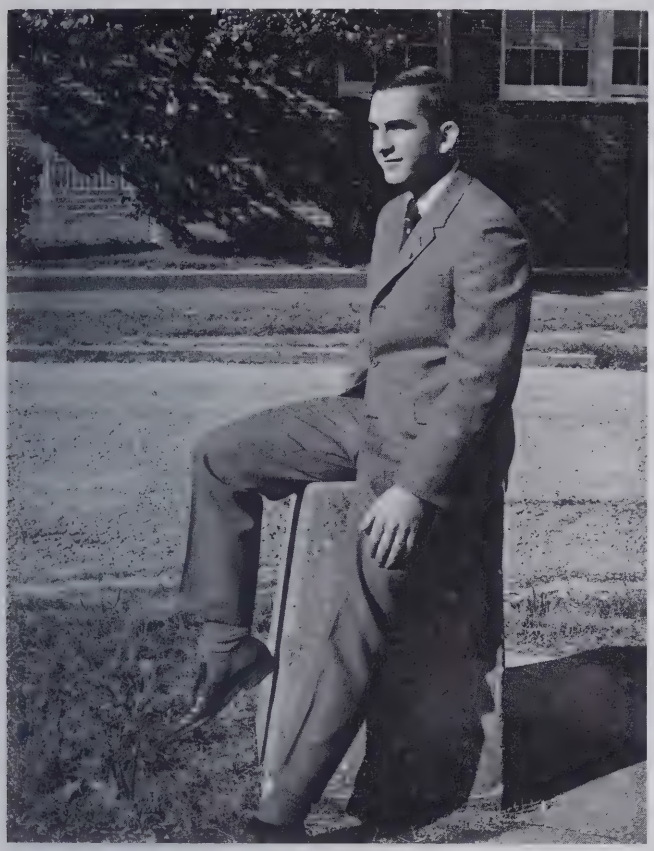
In clubs, sports, and her classes, VICKIE GOODWIN demonstrates her leadership through a strong will and a contagious smile.

In our group-conscious, cliquish society, it is difficult to find a person who is accepted by everyone. SHEILA LANE does just this. Everyone seems to appreciate Sheila's warm, friendly presence.



"Getting along" with others seems to be a chore for most of us. To NORMAN FELTON, getting along with others just comes naturally. Norman seems to radiate friendliness.

The best phrase to fit JERRY PEELE is the familiar "good, all-around guy." Jerry fills his responsibilities in all activities.



these seniors stand out for accepting responsibility

When the chips are down and the CHS Bulldogettes are trailing by 20 points, it is hard "to keep your cool" for everyone except WANDA WARD. In all trying situations, whether it be on the basketball court or in the classroom, Wanda remains in control of her emotions.

The idea that one has to be an athlete to display sportsmanship is quickly dispelled by the living example of DEAN PEELE. Dean is fair and level-headed in all phases of school life.

we don't always agree with him, but what he says goes!

During our twelve years of school life at CHS we have grown under three different principalships. Never has any one man done so much for this school and gained so much respect from the student body as our principal, MR. KENNETH STALLS.

we can't explain why - she's just unique!

"There's a first time for everything." Well, MRS. HARRIET SMALL has had her share of "first times" this year. As Senior Sponsor, she wades through the problems of all those seniors who want her to listen. Being the CHOWAN CHIEF advisor is no small job, but a job that SMALL does well.
